Sisterhood of the Sacred Hearts! HONOLULU, FORT STREET, NEAR THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

THE SISTERS OF THE SACRED HEARTS OF JESUS AND MARY, and of the Perpetual Adoration of the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar, are deeply sensible of the benevplent reception they met with on their arrival at Honolulu The attention and respect paid them; the services of all kinds rendered them; the public subscription made for the purchase of furniture for their dwelling—impose on them a debt of gratitude which will be difficult for them to discharge.

The Sisters do not forget that the first on the list of their bene factors is the Sovereign of these Islands, with the members of His august Family.

They have nothing more at heart than to respond, according the best of their ability and the duties of their vocation, to the encouragement they have received. They will study to render themselves useful to this nation, and merit its confidence They do not, however, expect at the commencement, to be able to satisfy every demand; they know their wants, and will en-deavor to supply them at as early a date as possible. For the information of the public, they beg to offer the following

PROSPECTUS.

THE SISTERS will be prepared to open their Establishment for the reception of BOARDERS on the 9th of July next: and they will be ready to receive Day Scholars on the 2nd of Au-

The Sisters being aware that all education is imperfect without the knowledge of the Law of God, will devote themselves with the most sedulous care to the religious instruction of their Cathell: pupils, without neglecting to inculcate in the minds of others the general principles of Christian morality. The most conscientious attention will be given to form their manners and to train them up to habits of order, neatness and industry. The diet will be wholesome and abundant. The health of the pupils will be the object of constant and maternal solicitude, and at al times they will be under the immediate superintendence of their Terms. Board and fmition, P month,$20 00 Use of bed and bedding, when furnished by the house, P annum. Vocal Music, P quarter 6 00

Scientific American. Prospectus.

Volume Fourteen begins September 11, 1858. M ECHANICS, INVENTORS, MANUFACTURERS AND M Farmers.—The "Scientific American" has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th ptember. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now used in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstruse work on technical science; on the ontrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the Mechanic or Artizan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the Housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good celor, &c .-- if the Inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements-- if the Manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and thus to employ the best facilities in his business-if the Man of Leisure or Study wishes to keep his self familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderate can be found in the "Scientific American, and not elsewhere. They are here pre-ented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the compre-ension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science TERMS .- One copy one year, $2; one copy six months, $1; five opies six months, $4; ten copies six months, $8; ten copies 12 conths, $15; fifteen copies twelve months, $22; twenty copies twelve months, $28, in advance.
